Satyadev Dubey: A Life Lived Through Theatre* documents the work of Satyadev Dubey—director, actor, teacher and playwright. Dubey has been passionately involved in theatre since the early sixties.

This book brings together essays, interviews and reviews by playwrights, actors and theatre critics as well as a selection from amongst Dubey's prolific output of articles in the Mumbai press. It brings to light the phases of Dubey's work, his style and method of direction, his system for actor training, the furious debates about theatre and the freedom of expression that he was involved with.

Shanta Gokhale is a writer, translator, cultural critic and theatre historian. She writes in English and Marathi. She has written numerous scripts for documentary, corporate and feature films, some of which have won national awards.
