

RELEASE DATE SEPTEMBER 2012

ISBN: 978-93-81523-32-2

SPIRITUALITY

₹395 / £9.99 / $13 PB

Published by

NIYOGI BOOKS

Fine publishing within reach

NIYOGI BOOKS PRIVATE LIMITED

Block D, Building No. 77, Okhla Industrial Area, Phase-1, New Delhi-110020, INDIA

Phone: 011 26816301, 26818960, Email: niyogibooks@gmail.com, Website: www.niyogibooksindia.com

KOLKATA OFFICE & BOOKSTORE

12/1A, 1st Floor, Bankim Chatterjee Street, Kolkata - 700073, West Bengal, INDIA

Phone: 033 22410001, Email: niyogibooks.kol@gmail.com

The Point of Vanishing

Author: Rashid Maxwell

SPIRITUALITY

₹395 | £9.99 | $13

ISBN: 978-93-81523-32-2

Size: 229mm x 152mm; 300pp

Book print paper

Black and white

Paperback

Victor is escaping from a world of crumbling institutions, power and paranoia. He faces, one by one, the heartaches and the inner challenges we human beings are called upon to face. He tangles with a tantric lover, faces death in a meeting with his long-dead parents and flounders in the mirages of mind. We travel with him through the sometimes tragic, sometimes comic landscapes of the modern world. In this expansive work, the author interweaves related stories from his own inexplicable life. This is an adventure story that is spiritual, not religious. It is a journey to self-realisation—a journey that we all must make at some time in the cycle of our lives.

Rashid Maxwell grew up in a post-war England that was frugal, repressive and rebellious. He studied at Oxford University and Chelsea College of Art. He lived for nearly twenty years as an artist, art lecturer and art therapist until, following an inner voice, he sold everything and went to live organically with his wife and four children in the remote Welsh Marches.

It was there that a close call with death impelled him to make his life a quest. With his family, he travelled to the East and met his master Osho. It was at this point that his real life began. For thirteen years he lived and worked in the master's commune.

Since the master's death, he has lived in many countries, painting, designing landscapes and buildings for sacred use, writing poetry, keeping bees, gardening in rural Devon.

Each and everyone's journey is different, yet for all us, one thing is true: the voyage is arduous and exciting beyond all dreams.

You are about to take part in what is the most important revolution ever, the ultimate revolution of the Inner. Are you ready?

—Ma Anand Bhagawati, author of Past the Point of No Return: Inner and Outer Journeys

This is a journey of self-discovery. The reader shares in the quest for the vanishing point; the point of ultimate realisation. Replete with Eastern understanding, the journey also embraces Western psychology. It offers, at a storyteller's pace, the peaceful and always personal alternative that our materialist society hides from us. An inspiring and enjoyable read.

—Robin Mouldsdale, author of Inner Fitness