Title:

Dedicated by Permission to

Her Most Gracious Majesty The Queen

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIA

Author/Illustrator:

Captain G. F. Atkinson

An interesting story of the great upheaval - the story of the 1857 revolt, which began in Meerut on 10th May 1857 as told by Captain Atkinson with the aid of sketches.

A reprint from the library collection of the National Archives of India, this book illustrates the progress, rather than the process, leading to the siege of Delhi and its recapture.

The principal events of the 1857 revolt are represented but only as pointers to the imminent victory of the British army. The book is an outcome of the Mission at the National Archives of India to reprint some of the rare and old books. It must be accessed to understand how the imperial mind moulded attitudes of discourses.
