Spicestory

by Hugh and Colleen Gantzer

History has acknowledged India as the Land of Spices, the land that added impetus and fragrance to voyages of discovery and maritime trade in the yesteryears. Having played a decisive role in designing the annals of the modern world, India continues to be the global leader in the production, consumption and export of spices. Spicestory offers the world the wholesome splendour of Indian spices through the medium of brilliant narration and eye-catching pictures, tracing the origin & history and highlighting the gastronomical & therapeutic value of these secret ambassadors of India.

- Spicestory offers the reader a set of interesting recipes that can be conjured up with these spices in its last chapter Spice Echoes
- Spicestory is part of the Spice Board India's efforts to acquaint the world with the wholesome splendour of Indian spices.
- Spices are India's secret ambassadors. For many millennia they have carried the message of India throughout the world. Spicestory gives the history and details about these unfailing ambassadors.
