NATIONAL MUSEUM

NEW DELHI

TREASURES

This volume highlights the treasures of the National Museum—New Delhi. The museum has over 2,10,000 works of art representing 5,000 years of Indian art and craftsmanship. The collection includes sculptures in stone, bronze, terracotta and wood, miniature paintings and manuscripts, coins, arms and armour, jewellery and anthropological objects. Antiquities from Central Asia and pre-Columbian artefacts form the two non-Indian collections in the museum. The museum is the custodian of this treasure trove of our multilayered history and multicultural heritage.

The collection allows Indian visitors to feel a sense of pride in their ancient culture and identity and enable visitors from other countries to appreciate India's culture and its values.

The Treasures series brings to you objects of great aesthetic quality and historic significance from collections of major Indian museums. Each book has an introduction to the particular museum, set in broad thematic sections. Several significant treasures have been selected and presented with an introduction by the Director and staff of the museum.

This Treasures series is an initiative of the Ministry of Culture, Government of India, in collaboration with major Indian museums, and the National Culture Fund (NCF) has been entrusted with the responsibility for its production.

The aim of the Treasures series is to create a lasting interest in Indian art and inspire more visitors to enjoy the wonders of India's great cultural legacy.
